Program Speakers

Here is the great lineup of guest speakers who will be sharing information with us in 2019.

Jayme Visnesky is the owner of Penn Hills Lawn and Garden Center, which is a place to learn and to grow.

Ron Berman and Drew Graham are members of the greater Pittsburgh Dahlia Society. They will be sharing information on how to grow, care for and enjoy these showy flowers.

April Kline will share information on underutilized annuals and how she has or will be using these in her garden. April is an active club member and Phipps Master Gardener.

Mary Jane Martucci, an accredited NGC flower show judge, will create designs and provide guidance using the “Handbook for Flower Shows” just in time for the club’s August flower show.

Amy Shugerman Glasser and April Kline are club members who will pair up to discuss how our gardens can produce hearty vegetables and herbs for use at home.

Roxanne Swan is a Coordinator for the Audubon Society of Western Pennsylvania Center for Native Plants and a Partner of the Three Rivers Rain Gardens Alliance.

Sandy Nix an artist and club member will demonstrate techniques and lead the group to decorate items for home and garden or for use as gifts.
